

Mine Reclamation for Residential/Commercial, Letcher County

Raven Rock Development is a 680-acre commercial and residential development located in Jenkins. Built primarily on reclaimed mine land, the development consists of an 18-hole public golf course, residential property strategically located near the course, and commercial development properties located along U.S. 23. Photo by Dan Carey, Kentucky Geological Survey.